nearer and is easily accessible.

These villages are under the jurisdiction of Mudabidre Police Station and Venur Excise Sub-Inspector's range. The distance from both these places to Karkal is very much less than to Bantwal.

In Karkal, there is a whole-time Stationary Sub Magistrate whose file is very much lighter than that of other Stationary Sub-Magistrates. A transfer of jursidiction to him of the above mentioned villages will not entail any hardship as he is a whole-time magistrate, while the Bantwal Magistrate has revenue work as well.

All other Sub-Magistrates exoept Karkal have jurisdiction over the whole of a Taluk. In Karkal alone there is this anamoly.

The proposal to place the entire Karkal Taluk under the jurisdiction of the Karkal Stationary Sub-Magistrate had been mooted once before and had been supported by all departments and welcomed by the public. But, it was dropped by the former Government for no valid reason.

Copy of letter from M.R.Ry. K. Ishwara, M.L.A., Kadri, Mangalore.

I wish to bring to your notice the following grievances of the inhabitants of some villages of Karkal Taluk, and I hope you will do the needful in the matter.

About 27 villages in the south-eastern portion of Karkal Taluk are placed under the jurisdiction of the Sub-Magistrate, Bantwal.

Bantwal is a sub-taluk in Mangalore Revenue Division, while Karkal is in Kundapur Revenue Division.

The Civil and Revenue jurisdiction of these villages referred to above is Karkal. They are under the revenue jurisdiction of Karkal Tahsildar and Civil jurisdiction of Karkal Munsiff.

But, curiously enough, for magisterial purposes alone they are under the Deputy Tahsildar, Bantwal. Bantwal is far away from these villages while Karkal is a good deal nearer and is easily accessible.

These villages are under the jurisdiction of Mudabidre Police Station and Venur Excise Sub-Inspector's range. The distance from both these places to Karkal is very much less than to Bantwal.

In Karkal, there is a whole-time Stationary Sub Magistrate whose file is very much lighter than that of other Stationary Sub-Magistrates. A transfer of jursidiction to him of the above mentioned villages will not entail any hardship as he is a whole-time magistrate, while the Bantwal Magistrate has revenue work as well.

All other Sub-Magistrates except Karkal have jurisdiction over the whole of a Taluk. In Karkal alone there is this anamoly.

The proposal to place the entire Karkal Taluk under the jurisdiction of the Karkal Stationary Sub-Magistrate had been mooted once before and had been supported by all departments and welcomed by the public. But, it was dropped by the former Government for no valid reason.

I request that after calling for reports from local authorities, these villages may be transferred to the jurisdiction of the Karkal Stationary Sub-Magistrate.

To

The Secretary to the Board of Revenue,

Sir,

JURISDICTION - (South Kanara) - Karkal Taluk - Jurisdiction of Stationary Sub Magistrate - Karkal - Report submitted.

Ref:- Board's Reference C.No.8417-37-1, dated 22-12-1937.

Mr. K. Ishwara, M.L.A., suggests the transfer of 30 villages of Karkal Taluk from the magisterial jurisdiction of the Sub Magistrate, Bantwal and the Sub Divisional Magistrate, Mangalore, to that of the Stationary Sub Magistrate, Karkal and the Sub Divisional Magistrate, Coondapoor. The names of these villages with the ---- authorities exercising at present; Police, Criminal, Magisterial, etc., jurisdiction are furnished in the enclosed statement - Annexure A. These villages form by themselves a compact block in the South-Eastern portion of Karkal Taluk and in fact, with the exception of one village (Idu), form one Revenue Inspector's firka. They are, however, separated from the rest of the Karkal Taluk by a river.

2. When the new Karkal Taluk was first formed there was a good deal of opposition from the people of these parts on the ground that Coondapoor, the head quarters of the division was a long distance away from these villages and in his letter Dis.No.615-M-1913, dated 22-6-1913, the late Mr. Couchman, the then Collector of this district recommended to the Government that the villages in question should be transferred to the magisterial jurisdiction of the Sub Magistrate, Bantwal. In their memorandum 1835-B1- Judl. dated 3rd July 1913, the Government stated that the District Magistrate was himself competent to pass orders in the matter. Accordingly the 30 villages were transferred to the magisterial jurisdiction of the Sub Magistrate, Bantwal, although for revenue purposes they remained within the jurisdiction of the Tahsildar, Karkal, and Revenue Divisional officer, Coondapoor.

3. Later, in 1926 at the time of the re-allocation of Police stations with a view to conform to the principle that each Police station may remain subordinate to a single magistrate, six of these thirty villages viz., Shirlal, Karambar, Badagakarandur, Tenkakarandur, Nalkur and Balanje were transferred to the Sub Magistrate, Beltangadi (the jurisdiction of the Sub Divisional Magistrate, remaining the same), as they lay within the Beltangadi Police Station limits; but in G.O.No.2282 Mis. Rev. dated 29-9-1928, they were re-transferred to the Magisterial jurisdiction of the Sub Magistrate, Bantwal.

4. In the above G.O., the Government also negatived Mr. Herbert's proposal to transfer all these 30 villages to the magisterial jurisdiction of the Sub Magistrate, Karkal, and the Sub Divisional Magistrate, Coondapoor, on the ground that it would minimise to make the inhabitants of these villages go a long distance to Coondapoor. But, I think the time has now come for a reconsideration of this order. There are now excellent and easy measures of communication in the shape of motor busses which run to scheduled timings. The distance to be travelled from these villages to Karkal is almost the same as that to Bantwal. The only difficulty is about the inconvenience that may be imagined ~~is~~ in the case of those who may have to go to the Coondapoor Joint Magistrate's court for 1st class cases and appeals. Such cases are, as is evident from the statistics (annexures B & C), few and far between and in view of the fact that the villagers do go to Coondapoor for the representation of revenue matters, I do not think that the difficulty would be real.

W417-19 9F

5. Again the work in the Stationary Sub Magistrate's Court, Karkal, is comparatively light. He has magisterial jurisdiction only over 75 villages, whereas the Sub Magistrate, Bantwal has Revenue jurisdiction over 61 villages and --- magisterial jurisdiction over 91 villages. The sub ----- Magistrates, Hosdrug and Beltangadi have Revenue and ---- Criminal jurisdiction only over 31 and 50 villages respectively so that even if the 30 villages are taken away from the magisterial jurisdiction of the Sub Magistrate, Bantwal, his jurisdiction will still be good enough. At the same time, the area over which the Stationary Sub Magistrate, Karkal, will have to exercise criminal jurisdiction will be of a normal size.

6. I have consulted the District Superintendent of Police, and he has no objection to the proposed changes. In view of these circumstances I recommend that the 30 villages mentioned above may be transferred to the magisterial jurisdiction of the Stationary Sub Magistrate, Karkal, and the Sub Divisional Magistrate, Coondapoor, as recommended by Mr. Ishwara.

To say.

The correspondence in the C.F. relates to the magisterial jurisdiction over 30 villages of the Karkal Taluk. These villages lie in the South Eastern portion of the Taluk. For revenue purposes the villages are attached to the Karkal Taluk and the Coondapur Dist. But for magisterial purposes the villages are attached to the Udupi Taluk Sub-Magte of the Bantwal Sub-Taluk of the Mangalore Taluk and the Mangalore Division. This arrangement was made in 1913 by the then Collr (Mr Bouchuman I.C.S). apparently for the reason that the villages are nearer to Bantwal and Mangalore than to Karkal and Coondapur.

current jurisdiction should be the same and recommended to the Govt that the 30 villages might be transferred to the S.S.M. Kankal and the Sub-Divl Jmt Magistrate Coondapur. The Govt did not however agree. They considered that it would be unwise to make the inhabitants of the villages to go for magisterial cases and appeals to Coondapur and that the villages should be in the jurisdiction of the Subdivl Magistrate Bantwal and the S.D.M. Mangalore.

3/ Sri. Iswara M.L.A requests that the magisterial powers over the villages may be transferred to the S.S.M. Kankal and the S.D.M Coondapur. The present Collector of South Kanara recommends the transfer. He states that there are excellent and easy measures of communications. The statistics of magisterial work given at p. 17 C.F. show that these villages give only very little work to the S.D.M. Further the transfer of the magisterial jurisdiction will make the magisterial jurisdiction of the other
